'ROUND THE SQUARES

Ed Miller and his Taw, Charlotte wish to thank everyone for cards. The 23 days in the hospital brought 105 cards and 30 visitors from New Jersey and Pennsylvania. Further proof of the Friendship of Square Dancers. We're glad you're better, too, Ed — now take care so you can dance with us for years to come.

Some of Pal Promenaders were able to go down to the "Rip n' Snort" of Delaware. They enjoyed themselves thoroughly and want to express their thanks for the great hospitality shown them.

Edge Hill Squares are happy to announce the results of their recent election. Rube and Mary Stanislaw are President; Joe and Alvena Nauman as Vice President; Charles and Mary Pawling — the new Secretary with Bob and Rosemary Caldwell the Treasurers. Congratulations and our best wishes for your success.

We're happy to have the Applebys back from their trip to sunny Hawaii. They were greeted on their return with Winter Winds.

Stardusters of Berks Co. had a nice treat. Crossroads Squares from Guthriesville brought a bus load to their dance. Everyone really had a good time and they hope to repeat this in the future.

CHAIRMAN'S CORNER

As we enter a new year your support is needed for the continued growth of our district. We've come a long way, but we must continue to grow in our dancing world. The annual meeting Jan. 11th will bring a new set of District Officers to guide you the following two years. We urge you to give them the same support and help that we've enjoyed these past two years.

DISAPPOINTMENT

Twenty-three disappointed persons attended the district meeting November 9. Our by-laws call for a quorum of twenty five persons to be attending, consequently we were unable to have an official meeting. Were you among the twenty three disappointed or those who couldn't attend? Isn't it important enough to have someone represent your club five times a year at a meeting? Is someone going to represent your club at the annual meeting on January 11th? Let's be well represented!

Pocono Plus Programs continue to workshop Plus figures as well as All Position Dancing. A Pizza Party and Dance will be held January 31st, by the Pocono Squares.

A Pot Luck Supper will be held by the Curli Q's for their Valentine Party on Sunday February 8 — it will begin at 6 p.m.

Bucks & Does will precede their Valentine Dance with a Pot Luck Supper at 6:30 p.m. The dance, on February 13th, will start at 8 p.m. Their newly elected officers are: Ernie and Ann Judd, President with Merritt Pearson and Grace Carl serving as Treasurer. Best Wishes to all of you.

On February 1, Sunday, the Yellow Rockers will hold their 5th Annual Greatest Little Dinner Dance. As in the past it will be at the American Legion Hall in Hellertown and Dalt Young and Ted Knauss, will be doing the calling. The McGee's and the Bleam's will be doing the Rounds.

R & R Squares wish to tell their friends they will change their dance to January 9th instead of the first Friday. Also they will not have a Sunday Dance in February.

Melody Lakes Belles & Beaus will hold their Christmas Party on Wednesday, January 7. After being snowed out for two years in a row — we're not taking any chances. We also will dance for the patients at Valley Manor Nursing Home on Wednesday, February 4th. Our Valentine Dance will be February 18.

Lentz' Lofters are using last years Pocono Theme "Camelot" for the Gourmet Dinner in February as an encouragement for this years "Showboating" weekend at Mountain Lake House.

Christmas City Square and Circle are holding a Special Dance for Charity on Saturday, January 31st. The callers will be graduates from Gloria Roth's Callers School.

Leisure Squares have 17 persons taking Square Dance lessons — they also have 11 new members which brings their membership to 88. Good work.

Valley Squares recently elected their officers for the 1981 season. Bill and Joan Flick, President; Jack and Doris McGrossin, Vice President; Harry and Lil McElhone, Secretary, with Len and Peggy Fairchild as Treasurer. Best Wishes for a very successful year.

1981 MEMBERSHIP

The Membership Drive for 1981 got off to a good start with the dance held November 2 at Benner Hall. Twenty-two squares enjoyed a fast-moving, excellent 2 x 2 program presented by eleven callers and five cuers of the district. Our chairman, Bill Bleam, did a professional job as M.C. coordinating the action. Peg and Bill Webb managed in their usual efficient manner to dispense quite an array of great food supplied by the Bachelor & Bachelorettes, R&R Squares, and Valley Squares. Tom and Judi Knowlan convinced everyone to participate in the 50-50 drawing. Six Clubs have reported 100 percent membership. They are Apple Dumplings, Buckaroos, Curli Q's, Dixie Derbys, Grand Spin Squares and Shadow Dancers. Congratulations and our thanks go to these clubs.

Membership now stands at 647. Last year we closed with a total of 1,080 so there are a lot of potential members still to be reached. Those who have as yet not joined should reassess their commitment to square dancing and the Mid-East Penn District. Our goal is 1,200 members.

"CARNIVAL"

The Delaware Valley Round Dance Teachers held their annual Round Dance Party. "A CARNIVAL OF ROUNDS", on the afternoon of November 9 in the Plymouth Meeting, Pa. Church on the Mall. Over 86 couples and some singles danced to a beautiful melange of 56 Rounds, cued by 14 top Round Dance Leaders. The "Carnival" atmosphere, created by a decor of balloons and clowns, and heightened by the colorful dresses and crinolines, pervaded the happy dancers. A sweet table and punch available all through the afternoon was very enjoyable. A fun touch were the party program books, also listing rounds to "trade a dance" with your friends.

This is our second annual dance party and the D.V.R.D.T.A. wish to thank all the dancers that so happily participated to make it such a success. We look forward to another fun time next year, and we extend a HAPPY AND HEALTHY NEW YEAR GREETING to all.
