GOODBYE DEAR ROSE BUT NEVER FORGOTTEN 1927 - 1991

Thanks to our many dancing friends for their kind expressions of sympathy on the passing of my dear Rose, who now rests in peace. Our friends will always remember you fondly.

Thank You
Aaron Silverstein

FROM THE CHAIR

by Bob & Ellen Williams

As we start our second year as district chairmen, we look back on a year of enjoyment, frequently touched with sadness. A number of those closely associated with square dancing have passed away. They will be sorely missed and our sympathy goes out to their families. We were proud to witness the caring and support demonstrated by the dancers on all these difficult occasions.

Now let's get down to enjoying our dancing, encouraging new dancers as they progress in class and helping our clubs plan and implement an active program that will attract and keep dancers.

On March 21, bring your class members to the 3/4 Dance, 8:00 p.m. at the Church on the Mall in Plymouth Meeting.

Plan now to attend these special events:

1) MEP District Meeting, First Bank, 6th & Market Sts., Perkasio, March 8, 1992 at 2:30 p.m.

2) Federation Board Meeting, Cherry

Hill Hyatt, March 12, 1992 at 8:00 p.m.

3) The Friends of the Handicapped Dance on April 5, 1992 at Dublin Senior High School from 1 to 5 p.m.

4) New Jersey State Convention on April 11, 1992 at Trenton State College from 10:00 a.m. to 10:30 p.m.

5) Annual Federation Free Dance and Election of Officers, April 12, 1992 from 2 to 5 p.m.

6) Federation of Delaware Valley Square and Round Dancer's Wildwood Spring Weekend on May 1-3, 1992.

7) 41st National Square Dance Convention, June 25-27, 1992 in Cincinnati, Ohio.

8) 31st Delaware Valley Square and Round Dance Convention, September 17-19, 1992.

And last, but not least, a welcome to the new "Kid on the Block", Liberty Stars.

DON'T BE LEFT OUT! REGISTER NOW

Registrations for the 31st Delaware Valley Square and Round Dance Convention are running well ahead of expectations. If the present trend continues, we may have to close registrations early. However, new graduates registrations will be accepted up until four weeks prior to the convention dates of September 17, 18, 19, 1992.

EDUCATION REPORT

by Frank & Terry Kaiss

The 3/4 Dance will be held at Church on the Mall in Plymouth Meeting on March 21, 1992 with Buck Fish calling. The dance is 8:00-10:30 p.m. and the dance fee is $2.00 per person.

We hope everyone had a good time at the Halfway Dance.

RUTHIE'S SEWING BASKET

by Ruth McLay

Are you having a problem storing your petticoats? Like so many of us, you may have more petticoats than storage room. Here are a few suggestions for storing your petticoats and other accessories.

A storage bag will come in handy. Try making a storage bag for each petticoat and hang them from a chain attached to the ceiling. You can conveniently see the color of the petticoat at the bottom of the bag and it also helps keep them clean.

Another storage hint is a tote bag. This will come in handy for your shawls, especially while you are at a dance. You may also add a small change purse, make up case and even make some room for an extra pair of shoes. This tote bag will help you avoid looking for scattered items at the end of the dance.

I would also suggest making these items as personal gifts or for door prizes at a dance.

'ROUND THE SQUARES

BACHELORS 'N' BACHELORETTEs

We recently elected new club officers. They include President, H. Buffington, Jr.; 1st V. President, Warren Bush; 2nd V. President, Mike Ferrari; 3rd V. President, Ann Marie Park; Secretary, Laura Rieder; and Treasurer, George Mazsa.

Join us for our Dancing Weekend March 27-29, 1992 at the Holiday Inn in King of Prussia, PA. For information, call (215) 838-6390.

+ + + + +

BUCKAROOS: Join the Irish fun on March 13 at our St. Patty's Dance and come party with us on March 27 at our Fiesta Night Dance.

On April 10 bring your favorite pie for Pie Night and on April 24 join us for our April Showers Dance.

Our caller, Buck Fish, and cuers, Elaine Novak and Jane Styer, always provide lots of good dancing and fun.

+ + + + +

CH SMOOTH SQUARES: We are looking forward to welcoming spring and the return of our dancers, who enjoy Florida's sunshine during the winter months.

+ + + + +

CROSSTRAIL TRAVELERS: Our first campout of the season will be April 3-5 at Camp Swatara in Bethel, PA. Come join us for the weekend or just for a day.

+ + + + +

DIXIE DERBY'S: The past three months have been very busy for us with no slow down in the near future. On March 20 we will have our annual St. Patrick's Dance and April 3 brings a Dixie Derby Special Dance with guest caller, Tim Marriner, and Russ Booz on rounds. This is a ticket dance with special pricing, if you buy in advance. See our ad in this issue.

Our Mainstream program continues with two dances in March and two in April. All present students are welcome at these dances, as they are progressive, becoming full Mainstream in May.

EDGE HILL SQUARES: Our special dances coming up will be our St. Patty's Dance on March 14 and our Antique/Old Timer's Night Dance on March 28.

In April join us for our Easter Bonnet Dance on the 11th and Everyone's Anniversary Dance on the 25th.

+ + + + +

FLUTTERWHEELS: Our Club Presidents became engaged in December. Lots of luck to Pat Massimo and Don Elliott.

+ + + + +

LEHIGH VALLEY CLOGGERS: Several members attended the National Clogging Convention, which was held in Nashville, Tennessee over Thanksgiving. At the convention, four of those members put on a clogging exhibition.

+ + + + +

LENTZ'S LOFTERS: March 20 brings Brian Fugere to our club for our annual St. Patrick's Dance. As you know, Brian has gained quite a following in the Delaware Valley and we will be looking forward to a large turnout of dancers.

Our cuers, Peg and Joe Dockry, also have quite a following of dancers. Brian's calling will give us a fun-filled and exciting evening of 2X2 dancing. We will be looking forward to having you join us for this festive occasion.

Jack McDermott, one of our most respected and hard working club members, has been taken very seriously ill. Most of you probably know Jack and Rita through their affiliation with Round Dancing. Our club members, and those of you who have attended our Pocono Weekend, have always marveled at the quality craftsmanship, attention to detail and, of course, the beauty and feeling of warmth Jack and Rita put into the various themes by decorating our square dance hall at our Pocono Weekend. It would be hard to imagine our weekend without Jack's input. We wish Jack a speedy recovery.

Our Pocono Weekend, May 1-3, 1992 at Mountain Lake Resort in Marshall Creek, Pennsylvania, is quickly approaching. We're getting down to the wire! If you haven't made your reservation, there is still time. All reservations with full payment must be in Joan's hands by April 15, 1992. Every year we get reports "that this was the best one ever!" Join with us and you won't regret your spending the time and money, as Larry Kanniard and Mark Franks will be doing the fun-filled calling with Peg and Joe Dockry cueing. Plenty of good food, good atmosphere, good friends and having a good time. Just what Square Dancing is all about. For information call Joan and Bernie at 275-8255.

+ + + + + + + + + +

LIBERTY STARS: Hi! We are the District's newest club. Our first dance was a Sunday Plus Special held on November 3, 1991, with Steve Kopman calling and Mary and Pete McGee cueing to some 25 squares in our Abington winter home.

Our regular dances will be on first Saturdays at Our Lady Help of Christians Church, Marion Road, Abington, PA. Our level is High Plus leading to Plus DBD. We have pre-rounds at 7:30 p.m. and DBD Workshop after the first tip (8:15 p.m.).

We welcome both singles and couples with a good background in Plus dancing.

+ + + + + + + + + +

MAINSTREAMERS: Our caller line-up for upcoming dances are Ed Kerns on March 7; Gordon Lentz on April 4; and Jim Snyder on April 18.

Look for flyers for our special "All-Nighter" to be held in October. If you have attended our all-nighters in the past, you know you will have a good time.

+ + + + + + + + + +

MELODY LAKES BELLES & BEAUS: On March 17, Mike Walsh will be our guest caller and on March 31, join us for our All Singing Calls night.

We invite you to come dine and dance with us on April 21 at our Covered Dish Dinner Dance at 6:30 p.m. Bring a casserole, salad or dessert and enjoy.

Happy Easter to all!

nights, join us for our Phase IV and V workshop at Lower Southampton School from 8-10 p.m.

+ + + + +

PERKY PROMENADERS: Just a reminder that there will be no dance on March 4 due to Ash Wednesday services being held at the Church on the Mall.

Join us for crepes and ice cream on March 18. This was such a success last year that we decided to repeat it again.

On April 15 we will hold our Silent Auction. We'd love to see you there.

+ + + + +

QUAKER EIGHTS: 1992 is our 25th Anniversary year. This will be our theme on April 11, when we look forward to seeing everyone at our Dinner Dance.

+ + + + +

RAINBOW STROLLERS: For the first time, we got to wear our new club dress in public! Although a total of five squares are expected to be wearing our club outfit eventually, 15 couples already have them finished and wore them for display at the Carter Ackerman Dance. Carter, of State College, said we had something "unique" and thought they were simply "terrific".

For some years now, we've had our club license plate, thanks to Vic Merinsky's sister. And, in addition to the club dress, Perry Thorne has put together a baseball hat with our name stitched on it. It's being worn by a number of us already.

Join us at our 4th Muscular Dystrophy Benefit Dance on March 8. Our goal is to top the $1,030.00 we turned over to them last Labor Day to get our club names across national television. Callers giving of their time will again be Paul Andrews, Bill Appleby and Sam Procopio. Dolores Procopio will be cueing the rounds.

Our 15th Annual Callers Night, set for March 27, has some big names. Be with us to dance to the "Old Winemaker", Paul Andrews, from Willow Street, Lancaster County, the evenings featured caller. Dolores Procopio will be on the rounds

Also adding to the fun-filled night will be cuer, Steve Bradt of Easton; caller, Hugh Jones of the Poconos; caller, Glenn Stuck of Selinsgrove; and caller, Joe Swartz of the state of Virginia. Something terrific always happens at these annual events. Largest turnout for this event has been 29-1/2 squares!

+ + + + +

RED HOT HATTERS: Come with songs prepared on April 11, and let our acting emcee, Jim Snyder, announce you at our Amateur Night.

+ + + + +

SAUCON SQUARES AND ROUNDS: Don't forget our Annual Round Dance Ball, "May Cotillion", which will be held on May 3rd at the Hellertown American Legion.

SCHUYLKILL PROMENADES: Join us for lots of fun and good dancing on April 25, with Bob Clark calling our "Everybody's Birthday and Anniversary Party" Dance.

We entered two squares in the Pennsylvania Farm Show Folk Dance Festival in January. We have started to have Saturday night dances (usually on the fourth Saturday) and, with caller, Bill Appleby, we have a small class of new dancers started. This will bring a few new dancers into our area.

YELLOW ROCKERS: The best season of the year has arrived - Camping Season! The deadline for the April 24-26, 1992 Campout at Pine Hill Campground in Kutztown, PA, is March 15. Be sure to double check those heaters and water systems!

We were glad to keep in touch with our fellow campers at our winter dances.

April 15 is the deadline for reservations for May's Campout at Evergreen Lake in Bath, PA. Remember that the deadline is before the April Campout, so you will have to use the U.S. mail for your reservations. The weekend committees are all ready for you.

Hope the "flu bug" didn't visit you this past winter, but the fresh outdoors should cure any other winter complaint. See you soon!

AMBASSADORS

The Mid-East Penn District now has its six Ambassadors in place. There are 6 to 8 clubs assigned to each Ambassador. Your Ambassador can be contacted for any questions you might have, for information you might need, for additional surveys, Where to Dance books, Federation Constitutions/By-Laws, etc.

Your Ambassador will try to visit your club once a year. If you need to contact your Ambassador, call or write the Chairmen of Ambassadors listed in the front of Squares and Rounds.

BUCK & EDIE FISH'S 400TH DANCE

by Helen & Ralph Watkins

Buck and Edie Fish celebrated their 400th Buckaroos' Dance on November 22, 1991. It was a gala celebration, and as always, Buck and Edie provided a night of outstanding dancing and entertainment.

For all fortunate enough to be part of this celebration, and for each and every dancer who has been touched by Buck and Edie's magic, we wish to say - "Thank You!" "Thank you Buck and Edie for sharing your talent and wisdom with us and for your tireless dedication to the cause of Square Dancing."

The following poem says it all, as we have truly been touched with gold and sprinkled with magic.

"Once in a while we meet someone Someone who flies higher and faster

and farther

Than we ever thought possible, and helps us to do the same

Someone like Buck and Edie!"

It connected with a canopy to the mansion. The "New Jersey Fresh" theme was carried out with huge work-of-art vegetable arrangements in several areas.

Did we mention that our invitation included dinner? After hors d'oeuvres we performed briefly. But, after dinner our real demo got underway. Guests then joined us on stage for some easy teach dancing. We danced with several cabinet members, state police officials and others. All who participated had great fun. Many guests admired our dance attire and complimented us on the demo. As we left the mansion, after picking up our gift tote bags stuffed full of "New Jersey Fresh" produce, we all agreed - we'd go back again anytime!

WHO WORKS FOR YOU?

by John & Kathy Falter

Aaron and Rose Silverstein have worked for you for many years. In 1975, they took lessons from Ray Neely and have danced with R & R Squares ever since. In 1977, they merged their camping and dancing interests by joining the Rovin' Squares.

They have served as president of R & R Squares, have edited the Rovin' Squares newsletter and were the Hospitality Chairmen for the 27th and 29th conventions. When Cliff and Dot Kehrle moved to Ohio, they became Chairmen of the Friends of the Handicapped Dance. They have been Squares and Rounds business manager for several years now.

Aaron is an insurance inspector and delivers the North Wales weekly newspaper. Rose, who recently passed away, was a clerical worker for more than 30 years.

The Silversteins have been married over 42 years and have two sons and three grandchildren.

Aaron is also a member of the Friends of the Handicapped, helping them each year with their September Antique Car Show fundraiser. He intends to continue his dance activities and has recently accepted the First Vice Chairmanship position of our district.
